

Daniel's Reflection for Week Beginning 27th March - Easter Sunday

– Alleluia, Alleluia!

'I am the Spirit of the Risen Christ.

If you dare to believe it, I can set free the dance in your body, the music in your mind, the adventure in your heart.

I am your inner spirit that whispers –

“ You can overcome every fear – with me:

you can forgive every hurt – with me:

you can create beautiful things – with me:

you can make your home a place of wonder – with me:

you can make your parish, your community into a power-house of compassion – with me.

Every dream you carry inside you can come true – because with me you can do allthings.

You can mend our broken world.

Everything now is possible.

Heaven on earth lies open before you today for the taking.

But there is one condition – you must dare to believe it!'
