

TEARS OF GRACE - Sheila

Tears that flow from our eyes for another are never wasted; they hold within them our compassion and heartache at a depth below our conscious being - a place of soul and spirit, the place where God touches us and ignites our love - a love which is undiluted, pure, transparent and divine. Lord help us to always love in this way. Turn our tears into resurrection-love which, when joined to others' tears, wash the world's pain away and brings new life.
